

Week Three: The Library

Today Elinor visited our class, and we learned how to use the North Seattle CC library. Think about what you learned and what you did at the library. Answer these questions about your experience:

- 1) What book did you check out today? (Please give the title and the author.)
- 2) Why did you choose this book? Please give 2-3 reasons.
- 3) How did you find your book? (Did you browse? Did you ask a librarian for help? Did you read a book review for a recommendation?) Please write 2-3 sentences.
- 4) What did you learn today? Give one or two examples.

Today, I did learned how to use NSCC library and I checked out one book the title "MAHATMA GANDHI" written by Donn Byrne. The reason I picked this book is because I have little interest of this person. What I learned today is how can I check out books, some rule of borrowing book and how can I find books from library.

It's very useful to work with Elinor Appel, a librarian, today. Now I have something to do in library. It's better than before, but not enough. Anyhow, what she shows me is basic. In class and in library, she teaches me how to borrow a book(checking out), how to find it out.

She gives us a handout to practice her lesson. I am working with a partner, we must find in a computer a book named "American Holidays", so we know the copies of it still remain in NSCC' library, is it available or not and the call number of this book, it's very important to find a book. We also have to find a nonfiction book. I think that Elenor's lesson is very useful.

Hello. I am rewriting the book reading assignment. On thursday, I went to the NCCC library to borrow a book. The reason that I chose this book "Brothers in Hope" by Mary William because it's amazing how the people in Sudan traveled through such dangerous plains in order to survive. Say hi to everyone for me. Thank you.

Sorry teacher, this is Andrea

I know is too late to write this, but I can't have a computer in class :(...lol

On Friday I learned how to use computer to search book , and how to borrow the book.

I learned about how search material about English pronunciation.. I'm really interesting about this skill.

I borrowed the book " The Mill on the Floss" this book has a CD... I read this book this weekend with the CD and this is useful.

Thank you teacher for this opportunity is really pleasant!

Again sorry, I'm so late.

Hi everybody, I checked out a book to write H'Mong people on tuesday last week. I chose this book because I regard to learn about less people on the wold. In my country also has H'Mong people, and I knew about them, but I want to extend my knowledge about H'Mong people in Aisan. So I chose this book. I found it in ESL development area.

In the library of NSCC, I learned a way how to check out a book, to browse a book and how many time to renew a book when I can't finish a book that I borrow form the library. The most important, I received instruction from the librarian about a way to browse a book from a computer. I am really excited from that.
