

Finding a Good Book

This is a brief guide to finding a great book to read. Visit the library and the library web page to find out about additional resources.

Think of your interests

Fill in these blanks to help determine your interests.

When I have free time I like to: _____.

A movie/television show that I saw recently and would see again is:

_____.

My favorite thing about that movie/television show was:

_____.

I like to learn about: _____.

Consider characters that you like

Take a moment to describe your favorite characters from movies, TV, books, and stories you have heard. What do they all have in common? How are they different?

Talk to people you trust

Ask friends, family, teachers, coworkers what they have read and enjoyed recently. Ask them what they particularly liked about what they read.

Visit with a librarian

Describe your interests and likes to a librarian, who can help match you up with a book that you will want to read.

Read more of what you like

When you find something that works for you, keep reading in that area.
